Provided that before such determination the Land Board shall give an opportunity to the persons interested in the land, to be heard.

(8) Where the Land Board determines the extent of the land to be surrendered by any person without hearing any person interested, such person may, within sixty days from the date of such determination, apply to the Land Board to set aside the order and, if he satisfies the Land Board that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing before the Land Board, it shall set aside the order and shall proceed under sub-section (5) or sub-section (7) as the case may be.
