Christmas is one of the biggest festivals celebrated around the globe by over a billion people. Christmas celebrates the life, sacrifices and teachings of Jesus Christ, who was the great teacher of humanity. Qualities like unconditional love, forgiveness, willingness to sacrifice are hall marks of his teachings, which remain eternal for a better today and tomorrow.

Puducherry, with its French lineage celebrates Christmas with equal zest and fervor as in other parts of the world along with its unique traditional rituals and merry making.

I wish the Christian brethren and the people of Puducherry a very happy and merry x'mas and may the festive spirit engulf each and every home ushering joy and happiness.
